All Unreasonable hardship requests will be submitted to the Access Appeals Commission for ratification unless it is denied.

If your Unreasonable Hardship Request is denied, the plans examiner shall inform you of the reasons for denying that request. In addition, the plans examiner's group supervisor shall provide you with a second opinion regarding the denial. If the Department denies your request for an Unreasonable Hardship, you may file an appeal with the Access Appeals Commission.

To file an appeal with the Access Appeals Commission (AAC), please pay a filing fee of $374.00 and submit a document package consisting of eight individually bound notebooks. Please refer to the Access Appeals Commission Information Guide, available at the Customer Services desk, for more complete information. These appeal copies will be distributed by the Secretary of the AAC to each of the Commissioners. One copy is kept on file with the Secretary to the Commission for review as requested by any member of the public.

Please submit appeals in person to:
